This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

What you can expect

After we receive all of the payments, your account will be considered settled and you won't be obligated to pay the difference between the current outstanding balance and the settlement amount.

If a payment is returned for any reason, or we don't receive a required payment on time, the settlement may be voided. If the settlement is voided, the current outstanding balance, noted above, less any settlement payments made or credits received, will be due and we may continue to pursue collection efforts.

There may be tax consequences as a result of a settlement. Please consult a tax professional if you have questions or want advice about any potential tax consequences.
